Pregnancy Options Dialogue

A Conversation For Providers

Friday, October 22, 2010

9 a.m. to 4 p.m., Portland, Oregon

Nearly half of all pregnancies
in the U.S. are unintended.

Are you comfortable talking about parenting, abortion and adoption?

Expand your ability to discuss all pregnancy options by attending the Pregnancy Options Dialogue.

Join your peers in this workshop to:

1. Explore your own questions and experiences around each pregnancy option.
2. Hear firsthand accounts from women about their pregnancy decisions.
3. Increase your skills in offering counseling and education around all pregnancy decisions.
4. Receive information about current practices.
5. Engage in conversations about pregnancy, abortion, adoption and parenting.

Facilitated by: Grayson Dempsey (Founder of Backline) and Katie Niemeyer (Open Adoption & Family Services Counselor)

Women making decisions about pregnancy, parenting, abortion and adoption seek care from a broad range of professionals.

Strengthening the ability of professionals to talk comfortably about each of these options is a key element in providing high quality services for women and families.
